GREEN PARROT RESTAURANT PUB & PATIO VOTED BEST OF BUCKS IRISH PUB FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

NEWTOWN, PA November 18, 2010: The Green Parrot Restaurant Pub & Patio has been voted Best of Bucks County for the second time in two years since opening April 15, 2009. Last year the Green Parrot was voted the Best of Bucks in 2009 for Best New Irish Pub and Best New Restaurant. In voting result released by the Courier Times and Phillyburbs.com today, the Green Parrot was again voted best Irish Pub.

Executive Chef Rick Narasaki and General Manager Bob Lutz announced to the staff and patrons the award today at the open of business. Chef Rick added that another year of hard work by the staff has paid off once again. "Our staff works harder than any other restaurant I have ever been associated with and it shows." Narasaki said. Lutz added that without the great customer base this award would not be possible. "Our customers come here from all over Bucks County and beyond. They really make this place what it is and our thanks for their continued support go out to them!"

Chef Rick also took this time to announce his new Fall/Winter seasonal menu adding that there are many new additions to the menu. "With the change of season, we need to keep pace with the freshest of products to put on the menu. Since we don't use frozen pre-prepared foods here, I need to change the menu seasonally to guarantee that we only use the freshest of ingredients prepared here daily.

To compliment the new menu items, Lutz has introduced several new draft beers to the selection of 24 draft beers. Bob said "when Rick changes the menu, I make sure I have new craft beer selections to compliment his dishes."
